

International ReactJS Conference

CONVINCE YOUR BOSS

We are thrilled to present the 2017 edition of ReactNext - a one-day community-driven event packed with advanced lectures by internationally renowned speakers, and networking opportunities with over 800 attendees from all around the world, that share a passion for React, held in the center of the vibrant city of Tel Aviv. ReactNext targets both beginner and experienced devs in two parallel tracks with sessions about React, React Native, Redux, MobX, and everything about the ecosystem.

LEARN FROM THE BEST

ReactNext is a great opportunity for you to learn from leading voices in the community - our speakers love to talk about what they do all day, and know the challenges you and your team face all the time.

KEEP UP WITH TRENDS

Staying on top of the latest updates and trends is crucial - where would web development be a year from now? ReactNext makes a point of bringing the most up to date topics and practices, so you are ready for the future.

JUST RIGHT FOR YOU

Whether you're already a great web developer, or just getting started - ReactNext will have something new and exciting for you, in a full day of talks in two parallel tracks designed to provide real value.

YOU DESERVE IT

You and your team have been working hard, have some fun! ReactNext is a real treat - excellent food, fun activities and great atmosphere - all at the luxurious David Intercontinental Hotel.

DISCOVER ISRAEL

Make your trip even more memorable, and explore the rare beauty of Israel - join your colleagues on a magical 2-day trip to Israel's must-see sights! And continue to the conference the next day.
